STATE BAPTIST CONVENTION.—The members of the Virginia Baptist State Convention (colored) convened yesterday in the First Baptist Church of Suffolk, in their twenty eighth annual session. About 175 delegates, representing every section of the State, were present, besides a large number of visitors and spectators. Rev. H. H. Mitchell, president, of Farmville, presided, and Dr. A. B. Bing, of Manchester, acted as secretary.

Devotional exercises were conducted by Revs. J. B. Smith and M. L. Minton, following which an address of welcome was made by Rev. W. W. Gaines, pastor of the church.

President Mitchell delivered an annual address of broad scope which was one of the features of the day. It was responded to by Rev. G. W. Lee, D. D., in behalf of the convention.

Other timely addresses were made by Dr. A. E. Dickinson, editor of the Religious Herald, Richmond; Rev. D. E. Reed and Rev. A. L. Gaines, of A. M. E. Church.

The enrollment of delegates and the appointment of the several committees were proceeded with in due form, following which the report of the treasurer and auditing committee was read and referred.

In the afternoon session devotional exercises were conducted by Revs. L. W. Lee and H. Powell, at the conclusion of which Rev. J. W. Kirby, corresponding secretary, read the constitution and rules of order. The following committees were appointed:

On Enrollment of Delegates and Reception of Finances—Rev. R. H. Bolt, H. W. Childs, J. W. Crawford, E. G. Adams, John Smith, L. H. Johnson, H. O. Johnson.

Committee on Nominations—S. W. Madien, C. H. Johnson, A. S. Thomas, H. L. Barco, T. S. Hampton, R. Wells, A. Foole, J. A. Crawford, J. M. Young, W. H. Carper, J. M. Armstrong, J. P. Carter, A. Truett, W. J. Hackett.

The last named committee made a lengthy report on nominations. John Mitchell, Jr., editor of the Richmond Planet, moved that the election of officers be postponed till after the report of the committee on charter, which had not been rendered when this account closed. Rev. Guy Powell, of Franklin, Va., preached the annual sermon to the convention at 8 o'clock last evening.

OLD MAIDS' CONVENTION.—On Friday night, the 10th instant, at 8:15 o'clock, the "Old Maids' Convention" will be repeated at the Y. M. C. A. Hall, by the young ladies of the Frances Barnes "Y's." This novel and delightfully interesting performance was presented at the same place last month and the large audience that witnessed it enjoyed it thoroughly. The ladies having it in charge, have decided to repeat it, to enable those who did not see it at first, to do so now. There will be several additions to the program which will only serve to add more enjoyment to it, and those who have seen it before should go, if only to see these new features.
